Dedication

We dedicate this yearbook to Juco Jane and Juco Jake, the typical students of El Dorado Junior College, who, through the idealism and enthusiasm of their youth, have made this school one which they can remember with pride throughout the years.

"Keep true to the dreams of thy youth."

Order of the Purple

Here comes Queen Jewell

The coming of the '52 football season found twelve lettermen returning from last year's team. Under the experienced direction of Head Coach Bob Douglass, who was capably assisted by his new assistant coach, Bud Cole, the Grizzlies developed into a hard-driving, high-scoring machine that averaged 24 points per game in seven games played.

Although defeated once, by Hutchinson, El Dorado captured the mythical state championship with six victories and one defeat.

Coach Dave Weatherby

The basketball season of 1952-'53 will long be remembered as one of the greatest seasons, if not the greatest, in the Grizzlies cage history. Although last year's team was certainly a great one, with a 13-7 won-lost record, this year's quintet far surpassed that record by winning 18 games and losing only six.

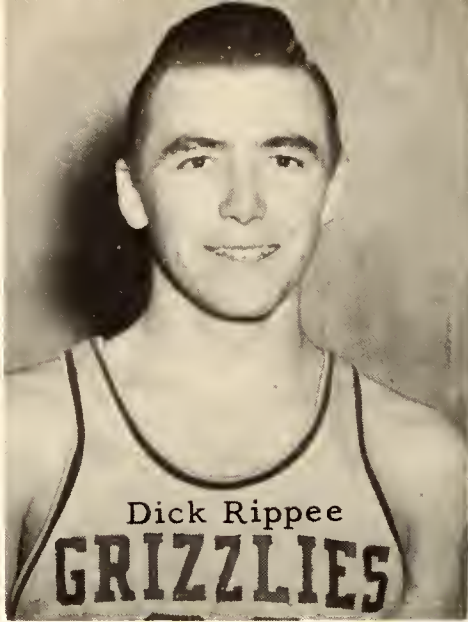

The Purple and Gold finished in a three-way tie with Ark City and Dodge City for the Western Division Championship, but lost out to Dodge City in the playoffs. This was the final season for Mike Girrens, Dick Smith, John Gragg, Len Wilson, and Bill McAdoo, a group better known as the "Big Five."

As the yearbook goes to press, the Grizzlies travel to Dodge City to compete in the National Regional Tourney. Congratulations go to Coach Dave Weatherby and his team for a fine season.

Student Council

The will of the student body expresses itself through the student council; therefore, it is the duty of the student council to carry out, whenever possible, the wishes of the students. This year the student council has tried to determine policies wisely and to give the students entertainment that would enrich their curricular activities.

No previous Juco student council has been more efficient than this one, or has been more successful in expressing the school spirit.

The student council has sponsored some of the most successful activities of the year, and the members deserve many thanks for their ceaseless efforts in trying to please every student.

DIRECTOR---Miss Barbour.

The Junior College Chorus is an elective course that met on Monday and Thursday evenings from 7:00 until 7:45. The chorus was asked to record a number of selections by station KAKE in Wichita, Kansas. The fifteen minute program also featured three soloists: Merna Crum, Bob Hudson, and Russell Griffith. The chorus was accompanied by Betty Davis and directed by the instructor, Miss Jeanette Barbour.

This year as usual the annual Christmas program was presented jointly with the high school. As indicated by the picture, the program consisted of religious tableaux, accompanied with appropriate music. The music was provided by the high school and college choruses. Martha Poe and Eldon Eisenhower were the readers. Miss Barbour was the musical director and Mr. Nixon directed the tableaux.

Pi Delta Theta is the dramatics fraternity of El Dorado Junior College. Each year the organization produces a three-act play and a one-act play. The Kansas Junior College Speech Festival, which is held in El Dorado each year, is sponsored by Pi Delta Theta. The group usually helps with the production of the Christmas program and sponsors a party during the year.

Delta Psi Omega is a national honorary dramatic organization to which students who have completed certain requirements are admitted on the recommendation of the local dramatics director--Mr. Nixon. This group works with Pi Delta Theta in the production of plays and dramatic activities.

Rehearsal for Death

On the evening of December 4, 1952, the Pi Delta Theta dramatics club presented "Rehearsal for Death," a mystery comedy. The play was a "play within a play," and the above picture shows a scene after a shooting. Pictured are some of the cast of characters. Facing the camera are Martha Poe as Peggy, Lorraine Arnold as Stella Carlisle, Russell Griffith as Phil, Gene Beever as Charlie Witherspoon, and Sidney Martin as Eve Westman. With their backs to the camera are Wilma Ittner as Dodo Pomeroy, and Larry Scott as Bobby Jackson. Those not pictured were Nellie Rost as Carrie, Bob Hudson as Herb Grant, Tom Fisk as Inspector Tom Burk, and Larry Maus as Assistant Inspector Carrol.

"The Story of Interdependence," which combines acting with a film strip, is a documentary presenting the work of the United Nations. As this copy goes to press, the production is being prepared by L. W. Nixon at the request of the local UNESCO group and will be given later in the year. The cast was chosen from the Jaco speech classes and from high school and junior high students. They were as follows, pictured from left to right: Sidney Martin, Millard Gladfelter, Leslie Winegar, John Unger, Paul Harper, Jerry Myers, David Moss, Larry Scott, Bob Denny, Ed Faulkner, Martha Poe, Don Andrew, Joan Vogelmann, and Bruce Von Behren.

Grizzlies Capture National Juco Tournament

The El Dorado Junior College Grizzlies left nothing to be desired in the way of a successful basketball season as they won the N. J. C. A. A. Tournament held at Hutchinson, March 24-28.

In the opening game of the tournament, El Dorado staged a last-half rally to edge the Lon Morris Bearcats of Jacksonville, Texas, 54-52. In the second game for both teams, El Dorado downed a highly rated East Central Junior College of Decatur, Mississippi, 64-60. In the semi-final round, the Grizzlies trounced the high-scoring Hannibal-La Grange Trojans 75-69. The championship game found the Grizzlies meeting their arch-rivals, the Arkansas City Tigers.

The Tigers were figured to be heavy favorites before the game, but El Dorado paid no attention to the dopesters and went on to crush the Tigers 82-64. In each tournament game they played, the Grizzlies were the underdog, and with the exception of their first game, the Grizzlies met teams who had scored no less than ninety-nine points in their previous games.

Len Wilson and Richard Smith were placed on the All-America squad, while Johnny Gragg and Mike Girrens gained honorable mention. The performance of Dick Rippee, the other starter, was outstanding throughout the tournament. Also performing like veterans during the tournament were Bill McAdoo, Jerry Wilson, and Ray Reep. One first-stringer, Jack Wichers, was sidelined by injuries. Danny O'Brien and Jerry Evenson completed the ten-man squad that attended the tournament.

Both the faculty and the student body of E. J. C. are proud of a great team, and of Dave Weatherby, a great coach,
